- 25X1X 1. During the period immediately preceding the Tito Cominform split, a break in the previously cordial relation between Victor Vidmar, Yugoslav Charge d'Affaires ☐ and Ismail Hadzibegovic, Secretary of the Yugoslav Legation ☐ and MVD representative, had become apparent. Hadzibegovic stopped his "usual Legation work," increased his visits to Soviet Minister Daniel Solod, and failed to report fully to Vidmar with regard to certain work for which he was responsible.
- 25X1 2. About 15 June, Vidmar strongly rebuked Hadzibegovic and accused him of working against him. At the same time, Vidmar wrote to the Yugoslav Foreign Office requesting that Hadzibegovic's "superiors" be informed of his insubordination. The instructions which Vidmar thereupon received from Yugoslavia were to the effect that the Foreign Office would back Vidmar to the limit in any difficulties with Hadzibegovic, but that all arguments were to be settled internally, without calling in any other authority (which source presumes would be the Soviets or the Cominform.)
